

TALKING HAWLEY FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Easterners Want Far Westerner for Running Mate with Governor Harmon.

Columbus, O., May 22.—The close political friends of Governor Harmon have arrived at the conclusion that they need a vice-presidential candidate from the far west, rather than from the east, according to political gossip here. It has been the program to join forces with a New Yorker, and the names of Governor Dix and a certain congressman were in the lead, though there was also considerable talk of Mayor Gaynor, though the latter, it is said, let it be known that he did not care to take second place on the ticket.

But a close canvass develops information which makes the wisecracks feel assured of the New York delegation for Governor Harmon, and hence the Harmon supporters would like to gain strength from another section. The south, it is believed, will be almost solid for Harmon.

The Harmon contingent is therefore turning its eyes to the west and as the search narrowed by state to line of vision finally concentrated on the far west.

Among those now considered as the best vice-presidential possibilities on the Harmon ticket are United States Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, Governor James H. Hawley of Idaho and Theodore A. Bell of California.
